Lenten Reading: During Lent, parishioners are invited to read and reflect on Blessed Is She by Tim Perry. On Wednesday, April 6, you are invited to Kennerly Hall from 6:30-7:30pm to reflect on what we learned from this book. Karen Meridith will facilitate the discussion. You can also join the discussion via Zoom:

The mission of the Parish of St. Mark & St. Paul is to worship God,

to proclaim the Good News of Jesus Christ,
to serve the world for which Christ died,
to educate and nurture our community,
and welcome all.

The Lord's Prayer (Contemporary)

Our Father in heaven,
hallowed be your Name,
your kingdom come,
your will be done,
on earth as in heaven.
Give us today our daily bread.
Forgive us our sins

as we forgive those who sin against us.
Save us from the time of trial,
and deliver us from evil.
For the kingdom, the power,
and the glory are yours,
now and for ever. Amen.

Communion of the People

All baptized Christians are welcome to receive Communion. Anyone may come forward to receive a blessing, indicated by crossing your arms across your chest. Gluten-free wafers are available; simply ask the priest. Please keep your mask on as you receive the consecrated bread in your hands. One person per household is invited to pick up a chalice of consecrated wine to share. When you return to your seat, please remove your mask, consume the Sacrament, and put your mask back on, then return the chalice after the service.

Sending Forth of Eucharistic Visitors (when needed)

(in unison) In the name of this parish, we send you forth bearing these holy gifts, that those to whom you go may share with us in the communion of Christ's body and blood. We who are many are one body, because we all share one bread, one cup.

8:30 am Holy Eucharist in the church for those fully vaccinated plus at least 2 weeks. Masking is required indoors. The 8:30 am service is also livestreamed on our Facebook page and remains available there afterward.

11:00am Holy Eucharist for all in the church. Masking required for ages 2 and up.

Sunday Forum, 9:45-10:45am in Kennerly Hall, the main gathering space in the parish house behind the church, with masks required. The forum also streams on our Facebook Page. Our theme is "A Year with St. Mark & St. Paul" and explores Christian life in light of our previous and present/future patrons. This Sunday— Hilary Bogert-Winkler "Eucharist as the threshold to the New Creation."

Youth Sunday School: 9:45-10:45am on the upstairs porch of Brooks Hall and in the upstairs youth room.

Godly Play for Children: Two Montessori-based classes meet 9:45-10:45am inside with open windows and masks. We will then go to the playground, weather permitting. During the season of Lent, children will learn a story series called Faces of Easter. This story begins with the birth of Christ and continues through the resurrection.

Nursery: Sunday mornings 9:30 am until noon. Infants and small children are invited to gather downstairs to form relationships and have fun! The nursery room is in the basement of the parish hall (in Sewanee Children's Center). Masks are required indoors for those age 2 and above. The children will be taken outside in nice weather.

CAC serves those in need with food and in other ways 9 to 11am, Monday through Friday. Please call 931-598-5927.

Home Communion is available from the clergy and lay Eucharistic Visitors; please contact Deacon Betty Carpenter at deacon@stmarkstpaul.org.

Wherever the River Goes Lenten Program: For four Wednesday evenings in Lent (March 9, 16, 23, and 30), the parish will host Wherever the River Goes, a faith-based reflection on the Tennessee Aquarium's feature-length documentary Hidden Rivers of Southern Appalachia. The hybrid series will be offered in person (Kennerly Hall) and via Zoom at this link:
