The mission of the Parish of St. Mark & St. Paulis
to worship God,
to proclaim the Good News of Jesus Christ,
to serve the world for which Christ died,
to educate and nurture our community,
and welcome all.

The Lord's Prayer (Contemporary)

Our Father in heaven,
hallowed be your Name,
your kingdom come,
your will be done,
on earth as in heaven.
Give us today our daily bread.
Forgive us our sins
as we forgive those who sin against us.
Save us from the time of trial,
and deliver us from evil.
For the kingdom, the power,
and the glory are yours,
now and for ever. Amen.

Fraction Anthem: S155

Communion of the People:

All baptized Christians are welcome to receive Communion. Anyone may come forward to receive a blessing, indicated by crossing your arms across your chest. Gluten-free wafers are available; simply ask the priest. If you are wearing lipstick, please blot your lips.

Sending Forth of Eucharistic Visitors (when needed)

(in unison) In the name of this parish, we send you forth bearing these holy gifts, that those to whom you go may share with us in the communion of Christ's body and blood. We who are many are one body, because we all share one bread, one cup.

Diocesan Cycle of Prayer: All Saints', Smyrna

The Gospel Matthew 5:1-12

When Jesus saw the crowds, he went up the mountain; and after he sat down, his disciples came to him. Then he began to speak, and taught them, saying:

"Blessed are the poor in spirit, for theirs is the kingdom of heaven.

"Blessed are those who mourn, for they will be comforted.

"Blessed are the meek, for they will inherit the earth.

"Blessed are those who hunger and thirst for righteousness, for they will be filled.

"Blessed are the merciful, for they will receive mercy.

"Blessed are the pure in heart, for they will see God.

"Blessed are the peacemakers, for they will be called children of God.

"Blessed are those who are persecuted for righteousness' sake, for theirs is the kingdom of heaven.

"Blessed are you when people revile you and persecute you and utter all kinds of evil against you falsely on my account. Rejoice and be glad, for your reward is great in heaven, for in the same way they persecuted the prophets who were before you."

Optional parts of the readings are set off in square brackets.

ALL SAINTS DAY

COLLECT

Almighty God, you have knit together your elect in one communion and fellowship in the mystical body of your Son Christ our Lord: Give us grace so to follow your blessed saints in all virtuous and godly living, that we may come to those ineffable joys that you have prepared for those who truly love you; through Jesus Christ our Lord, who with you and the Holy Spirit lives and reigns, one God, in glory everlasting. Amen.

First Reading Revelation 7:9-17

After this I, John, looked, and there was a great multitude that no one could count, from every nation, from all tribes and peoples and languages, standing before the throne and before the Lamb, robed in white, with palm branches in their hands. They cried out in a loud voice, saying,

"Salvation belongs to our God who is seated on the throne, and to the Lamb!" And all the angels stood around the throne and around the elders and the four living creatures, and they fell on their faces before the throne and worshiped God, singing,

> "Amen! Blessing and glory and wisdom > and thanksgiving and honor > and power and might > be to our God forever and ever! Amen."

Then one of the elders addressed me, saying, "Who are these, robed in white, and where have they come from?" I said to him, "Sir, you are the one that knows." Then he said to me, "These are they who have come out of the great ordeal; they have washed their robes and made them white in the blood of the Lamb.

"For this reason they are before the throne of God,
and worship him day and night within his temple,
and the one who is seated on the throne will shelter them.
They will hunger no more, and thirst no more;
the sun will not strike them,
nor any scorching heat;
for the Lamb at the center of the throne will be their shepherd,
and he will guide them to springs of the water of life,
and God will wipe away every tear from their eyes."

Psalm 34:1-10,22

1 I will bless the LORD at all times; *
his praise shall ever be in my mouth.
2 I will glory in the LORD; *
let the humble hear and rejoice.
3 Proclaim with me the greatness of the LORD; *
let us exalt his Name together.
4 I sought the LORD, and he answered me *
and delivered me out of all my terror.
5 Look upon him and be radiant, *
and let not your faces be ashamed.
6 I called in my affliction and the LORD heard me *
and saved me from all my troubles.
7 The angel of the LORD encompasses those who fear him, *

and he will deliver them.
8 Taste and see that the LORD is good; *
happy are they who trust in him!
9 Fear the LORD, you that are his saints, *
for those who fear him lack nothing.
10 The young lions lack and suffer hunger, *
but those who seek the LORD lack nothing that is good.
22 The LORD ransoms the life of his servants, *
and none will be punished who trust in him.

Second Reading 1 John 3:1-3

See what love the Father has given us, that we should be called children of God; and that is what we are. The reason the world does not know us is that it did not know him. Beloved, we are God's children now; what we will be has not yet been revealed. What we do know is this: when he is revealed, we will be like him, for we will see him as he is. And all who have this hope in him purify themselves, just as he is pure.

Announcements

Sunday the Holy Eucharist is celebrated at 8:30 and 11am. The 11am service will be livestreamed on our Facebook page and remain available there for one month.

Nursery Services: Infants and toddlers through three years old are invited to gather on the playground or downstairs in Claiborne Hall. Cara Kitzrow supervises the nursery.

Morning and Evening prayer services: are held at 8:30am and 4:45pm, Monday through Thursday in the sanctuary.

Sunday Forum: This Sunday, our seminarian Arielle Latiolais, will speak on "Keeping Company with the Saints." What does it mean to believe in the communion of saints? How might the saints become companions in our own spiritual lives?

This All Saints' Day, we'll explore how the stories of the saints live within Anglican worship and spirituality, shaping our imagination of the Christian life. We'll also encounter some of these strange, beautiful, and fantastical stories for ourselves and practice meditating on them as a doorway to prayer.

Arielle Latiolais is a postulant for Holy Orders from the Diocese of Western Louisiana and a seminarian at the School of Theology. Before seminary, Arielle served as the Director of Communications at St. Barnabas Episcopal Church in Lafayette, Louisiana. She also taught high school English, coached speech and debate, and directed youth theatre. Arielle lives in Sewanee with her husband, Chas, and their two children.

Our speaker for next Sunday, November 8, Reed Carlson, "God Created the World Good, Not Perfect."

Godly Play continues this Sunday at 9:45 am for children (3 years old through 5th grade).

Godly Play 1: The Prophet Jonah, Storyteller — Rebecca Gordon, Doorperson — Wendy Prothro Howard

Godly Play 2: The Story of Ruth, Storyteller — Barbara Prunty, Doorperson — Mary Ming

4th/5th & Youth Sunday School: For us and our salvation…made man, Jeannie Babb (Downstairs Brooks)

Rite-13 and J2A: Young people in grades 6-10 are invited to participate in Rite 13 and Journey to Adulthood (J2A) on Sunday afternoons. Please contact Hilary Bogert Winkler (hbwchurch@gmail.com) for details.

Sunday Nov. 1 is CAC Pantry Sunday: To continue serving our neighbors, CAC is in need of dry beans, oatmeal (single serve packets), canned corn, canned tuna, toilet paper, feminine hygiene products, and dish soap for this month's Pantry Sunday collection. The Community Action Committee is more than a food pantry as it strives to meet the basic human needs of those living in crisis in and around Sewanee. Neighbors can visit Monday through Friday, 9:00 AM to 11:00 AM to receive weekly groceries and inquire about assistance with utility expenses. To learn more about CAC services, call (931) 598-5927.

Diocesan Youth Retreat: Sunday November 15, 11-4pm at St. Mark & St. Paul and the Sewanee area. A day of adventure, learning, eating, celebrating and sharing Eucharist with 6th through 12th graders across the Diocese. The online registration and release form is REQUIRED for EACH youth to participate. Registration deadline is midnight Sunday, November 2nd. Please use this QR code to access the forms.

November Book Study: We Gather Together: The True Story of Thanksgiving and the Woman Who Fought to Make It an American Holiday, by Denise Kiernan.
Tuesdays 5:30-6:30
Brooks Hall Oct 13-27
Please bring a drink or snack to share.
From Ancient Rome through 21st-century America, this book is a biography of an idea: gratitude, as a compelling human instinct and a global concept, more than just a mere holiday. Spanning centuries, We Gather Together is anchored amid the strife of the Civil War, and driven by the fascinating story of Sarah Josepha Hale, a widowed mother with no formal schooling who became one of the 19th century's most influential tastemakers and who campaigned for decades to make real an annual day of thanks. It will be a three week study due to holiday travel in the fourth week of November.

Annual Parish Meeting: On Sunday, November 15, we will gather to elect Vestry members, reflect on the year that has passed, and look forward to the future. Confirmed communicants in good standing age 16 and older qualify as voters. A free breakfast will start to be served at 9:30am, with the meeting gaveled to order at 9:45. It will conclude by 10:45. Please plan to join in this important time of community discernment.

Appalachian-themed Dinner for Outreach!
When: Thursday, November 5th at 6:30 p.m.
Where: Mary Sue Cushman Room in the Bairnwick Women's Center

Come and join us for this fun and engaging dinner to learn more about outreach and specifically about our work with the Appalachia Service Project! We'll have students speak about their outreach experiences, and a wonderful community partner from Appalachia Service Project will be there to speak as well. This event is FREE and ALL are welcome and encouraged to come! We will be accepting donations while there, with all donations going straight to our outreach program. Can't join us but still want to support outreach? Simply click HERE to give, and thank you!

CAC Thanksgiving: The holiday season is right around the corner, and CAC is preparing to support our neighbors with Thanksgiving food boxes filled with a turkey and all the fixings. Thanks to community generosity, we're partnering with Piggly Wiggly in Monteagle for the second year to collect donations. Stop by the store to purchase a bag for CAC or use our shopping list to build one yourself (available in Kennerly Hall). We need over 100 food boxes to help our neighbors enjoy a complete Thanksgiving meal!
