

The mission of the Parish of St. Mark & St. Paul is to worship God,
to proclaim the Good News of Jesus Christ,
to serve the world for which Christ died,
to educate and nurture our community,
and welcome all.

The Lord's Prayer (Contemporary)

Our Father in heaven,
hallowed be your Name,
your kingdom come,
your will be done,
on earth as in heaven.
Give us today our daily bread.
Forgive us our sins

as we forgive those who sin against us.
Save us from the time of trial,
and deliver us from evil.
For the kingdom, the power,
and the glory are yours,
now and for ever. Amen.

Communion of the People

All baptized Christians are welcome to receive Communion. Gluten-free wafers are available; simply ask the priest. An individual chalice is available to your left or right.

Sending Forth of Eucharistic Visitors (when needed)

(in unison) In the name of this parish, we send you forth bearing these holy gifts, that those to whom you go may share with us in the communion of Christ's body and blood. We who are many are one body, because we all share one bread, one cup.

Advent Wreaths—Join us for an intergenerational wreath-making project today after the second service this Sunday. Wreaths and candles will be on hand. You may wish to bring greenery from your yard: Holly, pine, cedar, balsam fir, pinecones, acorns, berries, etc. Donations will be accepted to cover material costs.

Writing During Advent-Beginning this Sunday, November 28th, from 6:30pm-7:30pm, and continuing each Sunday evening in Advent, you are invited to join us for a simple time of reflection, journaling, and conversation in Kennerly Hall. "Writing During Advent" will be suitable for an intergenerational group, and will be hosted by Julianna Cappelletti Gray, Beth Chamberlain, and Lauren Goodpaster. Adults of all ages are welcome, and any child who is able to express themselves on paper will be able to participate. We ask all to wear masks while in the building. Please speak to Julianna if you have questions by email at giuliannagray@gmail.com, or at her cell (931) 636-3658. The gatherings will be from 6:30pm-7:30pm on Nov 28, Dec 5, Dec 12, and Dec 19.

Five Wishes Workshop: Thursday, Dec. 2, noon, Kennerly Hall— Five Wishes is changing the way we talk about advance care planning. It's more than just a document. Five Wishes is a complete approach to discussing and documenting your care and comfort choices. It's about connecting families, communicating with healthcare providers, and showing your community what it means to care for one another. For more info: <https://fivewishes.org/>. workshop will be led by University students Emma Temple and Ava Justice and all are invited to attend.
