Please join in the flowering of the cross for Easter beginning at 8am on Easter Sunday, April 8.

New Youth Curriculum: Rite-13/Journey to Adulthood is a very well-respected program of spiritual formation employs creative, developmentally appropriate lessons within the categories of Self, Society, and Spirituality. It includes serious and fun activities, reflection, discussion, Bible study, prayer, and service projects. Families with one or more children who will be in middle school in Fall 2023 are invited to learn more about this well-respected curriculum on Sunday, April 16 at 5:00pm in Kennerly Hall. We will begin with supper and some general information, then kids will have a fun activity while parents will hear in greater depth about what is involved. For more information, please contact Christian Formation Director Jeannie Babb or the Rev. Dr. Hilary Bogert-Winkler.

CAC serves those in need with food and in other ways 9 to 11am, Monday through Friday. Please call 931-598-5927.

The mission of the Parish of St. Mark & St. Paul is to worship God,

to proclaim the Good News of Jesus Christ,
to serve the world for which Christ died,
to educate and nurture our community,
and welcome all.

The Lord’s Prayer (Contemporary)

Our Father in heaven, hallowed be your Name, your kingdom come, your will be done, on earth as in heaven. Give us today our daily bread. Forgive us our sins	as we forgive those who sin against us. Save us from the time of trial, and deliver us from evil. For the kingdom, the power, and the glory are yours, now and for ever. Amen.

At the Breaking of the Bread: Hymnal S 161

Communion of the People All baptized Christians are welcome to receive Communion. Anyone may come forward to receive a blessing, indicated by crossing your arms across your chest. Gluten-free wafers are available; simply ask the priest. The consecrated wine is available from the common cup or a chalice to share within your household.

Sending Forth of Eucharistic Visitors (when needed)

(in unison) In the name of this parish, we send you forth bearing these holy gifts, that those to whom you go may share with us in the communion of Christ’s body and blood. We who are many are one body, because we all share one bread, one cup.

The Sunday Forum – 9:45 –10:45, Kennerly Hall. This Sunday Amy Patterson presents “Economic Inequality & Political Polarization: Implications for Community.” She will use recent findings from political science and sociological studies to examine how the rise in economic inequality and growing political polarization relate to social trust, communal belonging, and social cohesion. Her presentation questions how individuals and local organizations might combat these patterns.

Amy Patterson is Professor and Chair of the Department of Politics at the University of the South, as well as being recently named the Director of the Office of Civic Engagement. She has published six books and over forty articles and book chapters on civil society, democracy, community mobilization, and health in Africa. Her forthcoming book to be published by Cambridge University Press is entitled Africa's Urban Youth: Challenging Marginalization, Claiming Citizenship.

Nursery services: Infants and toddlers through three year olds are invited to gather on the playground to form relationships with one another and have fun on Sunday mornings from 8:30 to noon.
