From the Rector: Advent-ure

I enjoy etymology! That's probably not the nerdiest thing about me, but it's one of them. We often talk about how Advent means "coming" (or more precisely "coming to"). It is a season when we prepare (in this order) for the Second Coming of Christ at the end of the age, the coming of Jesus' adult ministry, and his coming into the world as a newborn baby.

Until this year I had not considered the common root Advent shares with "adventure." An adventure is an unusual, exciting, perhaps risky undertaking, where some surprise is not unexpected. That certainly describes Christ returning in majesty to judge the world, hair-shirted, locust-eating, "brood of vipers"-accusing John the Baptist, and the King of Kings being born under humble and disrupted circumstances.

I pray the remainder of the season of Advent will be adventurous for you and for us together as a congregation. Where might God be coming in an unexpected place? How might we guard ourselves from commercially-generated excitement and instead open ourselves to the depths-of-soul excitement of God's love for the world? Where might we be called to take a risk in our life of faith, or when might a surprise be God's message rather than a distraction?

"Stir up your power O Lord, and with great might come among us, . . ." begins the collect for the 3rd Sunday of Advent. Sounds like it's time for some adventure!

Hildegard Guild

The newly formed Hildegard Guild inspired by the works of the medieval mystic Hildegard of Bingen now boasts 7 members! Julia and Robin Bates, Diane Jones, and Alec Moseley have joined the original organizers John Gatta, Mary Priestley, and Wendy Prothro Howard in efforts to carry out the Guild's mission, which is concerned with Creation Care at SMSP, by increasing recycling efforts and decreasing the church's carbon footprint. ### Book Studies - Frederick Buechner: Writing for the Kingdom

Tuesday December 16, will be the last session of Rev. Tom Gildemeister lead study on Frederick Buechner: Writing for the Kingdom.

This will take place in Brooks Hall, 5:30-6:30pm. Light refreshments are served. Bringing a dish or snack to share is invited but not required. The Advent Study will take the place of our usual Book Study for the month of December.

Tom writes: Frederick Buechner is a complicated person. When he was 12, his alcoholic father committed suicide in the family garage. Little Freddie found his father's body. Not in a conspicuous way (at least to me reader of most everything he wrote), his life and therefore his books are attempts to come to terms with the tragedy of his father's life.

His mother's parents were wealthy , and he attended Lawrenceville, an elite prep school in New Jersey , and Princeton University. The year after he graduated from Princeton, first novel, A Long Day's Dying was a critical and commercial success. The New York Times him hailed as one of two great young writers in America. The other was Truman Capote.

He was living in New York City when he attended a large Presbyterian church. He was profoundly impacted by the minister's preaching , and they became friends. The preacher finally confronted him — challenging him to "write for the kingdom." He attended Union Theological Seminary, studying with such luminaries as Paul Tillich and Reinhold Niebuhr. He insisted that all theology is autobiography--that God is revealed in each of our lives if we would be honest about all the good and the bad of it.

He became a master of narrative theology, calling himself a preacher who writes. And did he ever write... his bibliography (19 books in all) includes novels, memoirs, published sermons, and riffs on many theological constructs and biblical characters, many of which poke fun at our heady attempts to explain the inexplicable--e.g., "Doubt is the ants in the pants of faith."

Tom lives in Sewanee and Nashville. He was an Echols Scholar at the University of Virginia, a Woodruff Fellow at the Candler School of Theology (Emory University), studied at San Francisco Theological Seminary, and is writing his thesis for the MFA program at the Sewanee School of Letters. He has attended a writer's workshop led by the Rev. Frederick Buechner. You will find him mostly in the woods around our little mountain village.

Rite-13 & Journey to Adulthood

Our youth program has doubled this fall, as students invite their friends to join them in Brooks Hall on Sunday afternoons.

The Rite-13 and J2A groups have continued their meetings this fall, getting introduced to some new tabletop games with the Rev. Roger Speer. In the new year, we'll be turning to learning about our gifts and talents, and how we work towards the building up of God's kingdom. We'll also be finalizing mission trip details for the summer!

Rite-13 is for students in grades 6-7). This fall, we launched Journey to Adulthood (J2A) for students in grades 8-10. Both groups meet Saturday afternoons. For more information, contact Hilary at (hbwchurch@gmail.com).

Nursery Notes – Help wanted

Nursery services are offered during church services, and during Sunday School and choir practice as needed. We meet mostly on the playground. We also use a children's classroom downstairs in inclement weather.

Children are usually brought into the church during announcements to participate in Eucharist with their parents. Please communicate with staff about this at drop-off. For more information, talk with our nursery coordinator Cara Kitzrow.

We have openings for additional Nursery staff for the 2025-2026 school year. Please share the word, and contact Jeannie Babb or Cara Kitzrow to apply or inquire.

Please register your child for Nursery online:

<https://onrealm.org/StMarkStPaul/PublicRegistrations/Event?linkString=ZDk4ODBiZWQxNWQxOC00NjM0LWJhMmUtYjA1MzAwZmY1MTdi>

Please be sure to sign in on the Nursery clipboard, and indicate whether you'd like your child brought into the church during announcements to participate in Eucharist.

Sunday School for All Ages

Additional adult volunteers are needed for our Sunday School classes. All volunteers participate in online training and a background check. Please see Jeannie Babb to find out more.

Godly Play 1 is for children aged 3 to 5. The basic Godly Play stories are introduced and considered. Learning is enhanced with art, music, and play. At times, this class will be combined with Godly Play 2.

Godly Play 2 offers children in grades 1-3 an opportunity to learn enrichment lessons and go deeper into the story. This classroom has the same structure as Godly Play 1 – story, wondering, work, feast, and sometimes a romp on the playground.

4th/5th Class takes children in grades 4 and 5 beyond Godly Play. This class meets in Brooks Hall to read and talk about books, applying Scripture to fictional situations and their own lives. The schedule also includes time for food, fellowship, and fun with art, Legos, etc. The first book for this year is Maniac Magee by Jerry Spinelli. Class leaders are Julia Bates and Matthew Mitchell.

Youth Sunday School offers middle schoolers and high schoolers a time to encounter God and get to know one another. Paul and Andrea Richaud led the class in 2024-2025 with a fresh, relational style based on teachable moments.

You can also register your child for Godly Play online using this link or QR Code. Your registration helps us protect and care for your child.

Sunday Forum

The Sunday Forum continues with the 2025-2026 theme from Micah 6:8 which tells us to do justly, love kindness, and walk humbly with our God. The Christian Formation Committee has scheduled a slate of speakers to help us apply this call to our own context. Most sessions are livestreamed and recorded. We have had excellent sessions thus far! Don't miss out. See the flyer for a list of upcoming sessions.

Tuesday Lectionary Class

The lectionary class meets Tuesdays from 3:30-4:30 in Brooks Hall to talk about the Gospel lesson for the upcoming Sunday. Led by the Rev. Scott Lee, this class is open to everyone in the community. It's a place to consider the lesson more deeply and reflect on it together. Lectionary Class will meet as normal through the holiday season.

Centering Prayer

Mondays at 7pm with Jennifer Michael

Tuesday afternoons at 2:30pm with Scott Lee

Centering Prayer is a method of silent prayer through which we consent to God's presence and action within us. Those who practice it do so not in place of corporate worship and service, but rather as a necessary complement to those modes of engaging with God and with neighbor. With chairs encircling a candle at the front of the nave, we have a brief check-in about our prayer practice and anything else going on in our lives, and then we have a meditation session (what we call a "sit") together. For more information, contact Jennifer Michael jmichael@sewanee.edu.

Education for Ministry

by EfM Mentor Wendy Prothro
Howard

Our EfM cohort includes students in Year 1 studying Hebrew Scripture, Year 2 studying Christian Scripture, Year 3 Christian History, Year 4 Christian Ethics and Spirituality, one in taking the new Wide Angle program which delves into a mix of texts. EfM opens with worship, then a discussion of texts. Each session includes a reflection on a story, event, or artwork. The goal of EfM is to deepen faith and to discover expressions of that faith in service to others. Registration takes place each fall.

The last class for 2025 will be Monday 12/15. We will resume classes on Monday January 5, 2026.

For more information, contact Wendy Howard finance@stmarkstpaul.org.

COFFEE HOUR – HOSTS NEEDED

Get your service power through coffee hour!

As one of the church's oldest methods of fellowship, coffee hour serves an enormous purpose.

We need HOSTS to continue this fellowship flow.

No need to bake a cake or shop until you drop for this - simply provide a small snack to serve with coffee after the 11am service in Kennerly Hall. EVEN if you forget to bring a snack, St. Mark & St. Paul always has your back with extra snacks you can utilize if necessary.

Coffee is simple to make in the coffee maker. The parish provides the coffee.

PLEASE consider signing up on the board in Kennerly Hall TODAY!

A Note from your Altar Guild

We wish to extend a warm welcome to our new parish members and a continued “thank you” to those who have been around a while.

The Altar Guild ministry is open to everyone – including men, as you may have noticed in the weekly bulletin listing those serving each Sunday.

Some families like to get involved and that is certainly encouraged. We like to utilize everyone’s particular skills. Some like to polish brass/silver while some like to wash linens for the Eucharist. I personally like the satisfaction of seeing the altar setup for the service – everything in its place and ready for the ministers to use during the service.

Like everything else, altar guild service is not for everyone. We welcome you to try it out for a month or two to see if it is as fulfilling for you as it is for those of us currently serving. We promise we will be there to walk you through everything and we utilize checklists, post photographs or diagrams of altar setups and provide manuals to help us all remember what to do.

What type of time commitment is involved? For our regular services we schedule 2 members a Sunday. They usually meet on Sat. morning to polish and get the vessels setup for Sunday. On Sunday morning, one person comes prior to the 8:30am service (around 8:00am) and sets out the prepared items. After that service both members clean what was used and resets for the 11:00am service. After that service the second member cleans and puts everything away. Of course there are special services such as funerals or seasonal services where we all pitch in according to our availability.

Interested and/or have questions? Please let Dan Amundson know in the church office at 931-598-5926 and we will contact you in a timely manner.
