Psalms 40:1-12 (Spoken at 8:30; sung at 11:00.)

1 I waited patiently u- | pon the | Lord; *
he stooped to me and | heard my | cry.

2 He lifted me out of the desolate pit, out of the | mire and | clay; *
he set my feet upon a high cliff and made my | footing | sure.

3 He put a new song in my mouth,
a song of praise | to our | God; *
many shall see, and stand in awe,
and put their trust | in the | Lord.

4 Happy are they who trust | in the | Lord! *
they do not resort to evil spirits or turn | to false | gods.

5 Great things are they that you have done, O Lord my God!
how great your wonders and your | plans for | us! *
there is none who can be com- | pared with | you.

6 Oh, that I could make them | known and | tell them! *
but they are more than | I can | count.

7 In sacrifice and offering you | take no | pleasure *
(you have given me | ears to | hear you);
8 Burnt-offering and sin-offering you | have not | required, *
and so I said, "Be- | hold, I | come.
9 In the roll of the book it is written con- | cerning | me: *
'I love to do your will, O my God;
your law is deep | in my | heart."
10 I proclaimed righteousness in the great | congre- | gation; *
behold, I did not restrain my lips;
and that, O | Lord, you | know.
11 Your righteousness have I not hidden in my heart;
I have spoken of your faithfulness and | your de- | liverance; *
I have not concealed your love and faithfulness from the great | congre- | gation.
12 You are the Lord;
do not withhold your compa- | ssion from | me; *
let your love and your faithfulness keep me | safe for | ever.

Eucharistic Prayer 1

(from Enriching our Worship 1)
For the Season after Epiphany, 2026

Celebrant The Lord be with you.

People And also with you.

Celebrant Lift up your hearts.

People We lift them to the Lord.

Celebrant Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.

People It is right to give our thanks and praise.

Celebrant

It is truly right, and good and joyful, to give you thanks, all-holy God, source of life and fountain of mercy. The following Preface may be used at any time. You have filled us and all creation with your blessing and fed us with your constant love; you have redeemed us in Jesus Christ and knit us into one body. Through your Spirit you replenish us and call us to fullness of life. Therefore, joining with Angels and Archangels and with the faithful of every generation, we lift our voices with all creation as we sing (say):

Celebrant and People [music in Hymnal S129]

Holy, holy, holy Lord, God of power and might, heaven and earth are full of your glory.

Hosanna in the highest.

Blessed is the one who comes in the name of the Lord.

Hosanna in the highest.

The Celebrant continues

Blessed are you, gracious God, creator of the universe and giver of life.

You formed us in your own image and called us to dwell in your infinite love.

You gave the world into our care that we might be your faithful stewards and show forth your bountiful grace.

But we failed to honor your image in one another and in ourselves; we would not see your goodness in the world around us; and so we violated your creation, abused one another, and rejected your love. Yet you never ceased to care for us, and prepared the way of salvation for all people.

Through Abraham and Sarah you called us into covenant with you. You delivered us from slavery, sustained us in the wilderness, and raised up prophets to renew your promise of salvation.

Then, in the fullness of time, you sent your eternal Word, made mortal flesh in Jesus.

Born into the human family, and dwelling among us, he revealed your glory.

Giving himself freely to death on the cross, he triumphed over evil, opening the way of freedom and life.

On the night before he died for us,

Our Savior Jesus Christ took bread, and when he had given thanks to you, he broke it, and gave it to his friends, and said:

“Take, eat: This is my Body which is given for you. Do this for the remembrance of me.”

As supper was ending, Jesus took the cup of wine, and when he had given thanks, he gave it to them, and said:

“Drink this, all of you:

This is my Blood of the new Covenant, which is poured out for you and for all for the forgiveness of sins.

Whenever you drink it, do this for the remembrance of me.”

Therefore we proclaim the mystery of faith:

Celebrant and People

Christ has died.

Christ is risen.

Christ will come again.

The Celebrant continues

Remembering his death and resurrection, we now present to you from your creation this bread and this wine.

By your Holy Spirit may they be for us the Body and Blood of our Savior Jesus Christ.

Grant that we who share these gifts may be filled with the Holy Spirit and live as Christ’s Body in the world.

Bring us into the everlasting heritage of your daughters and sons, that with [ _____ and] all your saints, past, present, and yet to come, we may praise your Name for ever.

Through Christ and with Christ and in Christ, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, to you be honor, glory, and praise, for ever and ever.
AMEN.

Our Father in heaven,
hallowed be your Name,
your kingdom come,
your will be done,
on earth as in heaven.
Give us today our daily bread.
Forgive us our sins
as we forgive those who sin against us.
Save us from the time of trial,
and deliver us from evil.
For the kingdom, the power,
and the glory are yours,
now and for ever. Amen.

At the Breaking of the Bread: music in Hymnal, S155

Postcommunion Prayer

God of abundance,
you have fed us
with the bread of life and cup of salvation;
you have united us with Christ and one another;
and you have made us one
with all your people in heaven and on earth.
Now send us forth
in the power of your Spirit,
that we may proclaim your redeeming love
to the world
and continue for ever in the risen life of Christ our Savior. Amen.

Sunday Forum: This Sunday, Dr. Lydia Reinig, the College's Director of Dialogue Across Difference Program, will address Sunday's St. Mark and St. Paul weekly forum on "Stewarding Connection in Contentious Times: Dialogue as a Path to Curiosity, Humility, Justice, and Love." The talk is part of a year-long series on Micah's injunction to "do justice, love kindness, and walk humbly with your God."

Dr. Reinig notes that, in fraught times when communities are filled with fear and intractable divisions, the values of dialogue call us forward to steward connections across our differences. Her talk will explore how we can be part of creating the conditions and space for constructive dialogue that make being in community and finding Christ in one another possible.

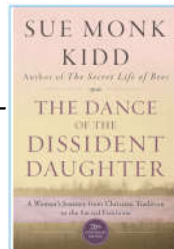

Dr. Lydia Reinig directs co-curricular initiatives in public dialogue for students, offers workshops and programming for the campus colleagues, and teaches annually in the Rhetoric program. She holds a Ph.D. from the University of Colorado Boulder in Communication, and an M.A. in Communication Studies from Colorado State University. Her research in Colorado focused on public participation on local environmental policies and supported deliberative engagement in local communities. She has also conducted research on ways of sustaining dialogue in the face of polarization.

Next Sunday January 25, Fr. Rob will be leading a Rector's Forum.
