

Youth Sunday School: 9:45-10:45am on the upstairs porch of Brooks Hall.

Home Communion is available from the clergy and lay Eucharistic Visitors; please contact Deacon Betty Carpenter at deacon@stmarkstpaul.org.

CAC serves those in need with food and in other ways 9 to 11am, Monday through Friday. Please call 931-598-5927.

CAC Thanksgiving meal is Friday, November 19 from noon to 1pm. You can eat in or carry out. All are invited.

Annual Parish Meeting: November 21, 2021 at 9:30am in Kennerly Hall with masking required and available via Zoom. We will review the past year and look to the year to come, hear from parish leaders and those involved in our various ministries, and elect 3 members to the Vestry for 3-year terms. Under diocesan canons, confirmed communicants in good standing qualify to vote. In case of a contested election, polls will remain open the following week so that voters not comfortable attending in person because of COVID may participate.

Announcements

Offertory

Presentation of Food for the Community Action Committee

V. The eyes of all wait upon you, O Lord;

R. And you give them their food in due season.

Let us pray (in unison): Almighty God, we offer this food in obedience to your command that we love our neighbors as ourselves, and that together we may know the fruits of faith, hope, and charity. Grant that as bodies are fed, so might spiritual hunger be satisfied as well through your Son Jesus Christ, who is the Bread of Life. AMEN.

The Great Thanksgiving (Eucharistic Prayer A)

The Lord's Prayer (Contemporary)

Our Father in heaven,
hallowed be your Name,
your kingdom come,
your will be done,
on earth as in heaven.
Give us today our daily bread.
Forgive us our sins

as we forgive those
who sin against us.
Save us from the time of trial,
and deliver us from evil.
For the kingdom, the power,
and the glory are yours,
now and for ever. Amen.

Communion of the People

All baptized Christians are welcome to receive Communion. Gluten-free wafers are available; simply ask the priest. An individual chalice is available to your left or right.

Sending Forth of Eucharistic Visitors (when needed)

(in unison) In the name of this parish, we send you forth bearing these holy gifts, that those to whom you go may share with us in the communion of Christ's body and blood. We who are many are one body, because we all share one bread, one cup.

8:30 am Holy Eucharist in the church for those fully vaccinated plus at least 2 weeks. Masking is required indoors. The 8:30 am service is also livestreamed on our Facebook page. It is available there and on our YouTube channel at 11am and afterward.

11:00am Holy Eucharist outside for all (in case of rain or low temperatures, the 11:00 service will take place in the Kennerly Hall with curtailed singing.)

Sunday Forum: 9:45-10:45am in Kennerly Hall, the main gathering space in the parish house behind the church, with masks required and windows open. The forum also streams on our Facebook Page. Our theme is "A Year with St. Mark & St. Paul" and explores Christian life in light of our previous and present/future patrons. Presenter: Tam Parker— Tam K. Parker, professor in the Religious Studies Department in the College, will offer a presentation on "sacralized violence" in the Sunday Forum at St. Mark & St. Paul on Sunday, November 14. The language of contemporary culture wars in the United States is often made more compelling and effective by echoing violent imagery drawn from the Old and New Testaments of the Christian tradition, as well as from the sacred writings of other religious traditions. Professor Parker's primary field of inquiry is Social Ethics. She is currently researching, teaching, and writing on the affective dynamics of collective and organized acts of sacralized violence.

All in the community are welcome.

Godly Play for Children: Two Montessori-based classes meet 9:45-10:45am on the playground, weather permitting. Please bring a mask and water bottle. In case of rain, age 3 through 1st grade meet on the porch at the back of Claiborne Hall near the entrance to CAC, and grades 2-5 meet on the porch of Brooks Hall.

This Sunday:

GP 1 - Parable of the Great Pearl told by Wendy Howard

GP 2 - The Exile & Return told by Jeannie Babb

Nursery: Sunday mornings 9:45 am until noon. Infants and small children are invited to gather at the playground to form relationships and have fun! In case of inclement weather, children will be taken into our new nursery room in the basement of the parish hall (in Sewanee Children's Center). Masks are required indoors for those age 2 and above.
