

We are deeply grateful to All Saints' Chapel and the chapel staff for welcoming the Parish of St. Mark & St. Paul to conduct this service here tonight! More information on the University chaplaincy may be found at new.sewanee.edu/campus-life/believing/all-saints-chapel. All Saints' will hold Sunday services at 8:00am December 28 & January 4, and during the academic year holds Sunday services at 8am, 11am, and 6:30pm.

The Parish of St. Mark & St. Paul, 216 University Ave., warmly welcomes you to join us as we worship, study, and serve our community. Sunday services begin at 8:30 and 11 am. Children are most welcome, and nursery care is available during both services.

Starting January 4, Christian education for all ages will resume at 9:45am in Kennerly Hall. The Sunday Forum theme for 2025-2026 comes from Micah 6:8, which tells us to “do justly, love kindness, and walk humbly with our God.”

Youth group resumes on January 11th in Brooks Hall.
Rite-13 (6th and 7th grades) meet from 3-5 pm
J2A (8th-10th grades) meet from 4-6 pm

Christmas Eve

December 24, 2025, 4:30 pm

The Holy Eucharist
(Service at All Saints' Chapel)

The warmest of welcomes on this holy night!

Nursery care (in the Trudy Cunningham Room) and rest rooms are available downstairs in Carnegie Hall; please ask an usher for directions.

Prelude Chant de Paix (Song of Peace) Jean Langlais (1907-1991)
Hymn 83 (blue Hymnal 1982) “O come, all ye faithful” (verses 1, 2, 3, 6) Adeste fideles

Celebrant Blessed be God, Father, Son and Holy Spirit
People And blessed be his kingdom, now and for ever. Amen.

Hymn 96 “Angels we have heard on high” Gloria Children sing the 1st verse and the first 3 refrains;
 all sing verses 2-4 and the final refrain

Celebrant The Lord be with you.
People And also with you.
Celebrant Let us pray.

Celebrant O God, you have caused this holy night to shine with the brightness of the true Light: Grant that we, who have known the mystery of that Light on earth, may also enjoy him perfectly in heaven; where with you and the Holy Spirit he lives and reigns, one God, in glory everlasting. People Amen.

Isaiah 9:2-7

The people who walked in darkness have seen a great light;
those who lived in a land of deep darkness--
on them light has shined.
You have multiplied the nation,
you have increased its joy;
they rejoice before you
as with joy at the harvest,
as people exult when dividing plunder.
For the yoke of their burden,
and the bar across their shoulders,
the rod of their oppressor,
you have broken as on the day of Midian.
For all the boots of the tramping warriors and all the garments rolled in blood shall be burned as fuel for the fire.
For a child has been born for us,
a son given to us;
authority rests upon his shoulders;
and he is named Wonderful Counselor, Mighty God, Everlasting Father, Prince of Peace.
His authority shall grow continually,
and there shall be endless peace
for the throne of David and his kingdom.
He will establish and uphold it with justice and with righteousness from this time onward and forevermore.
The zeal of the Lord of hosts will do this.

Reader The Word of the Lord.
People Thanks be to God.

Hymn 87: “Hark! the Herald Angels Sing” Mendelssohn

Titus 2:11-14

11 For the grace of God has appeared, bringing salvation to all,¹² training us to renounce impiety and worldly passions and in the present age to live lives that are self-controlled, upright, and godly,¹³ while we wait for the blessed hope and the manifestation of the glory of our great God and Savior, Jesus Christ.¹⁴ He it is who gave himself for us that he might redeem us from all iniquity and purify for himself a people of his own who are zealous for good deeds.

The Rev. Rob Lamborn will be off work December 26-January 1. The parish office is closed through Friday, December 26, but will be open December 29-31, and Jan 2 (9am-noon and 1-4:30 MWF, 9am-1pm TuTh). In case of emergency outside of office hours, please contact Senior Warden Robin Bates.

Sunday Services at St. Mark and St. Paul on December 28 will be at 8:30 and 11:00 am.

Sunday school, youth, and adult education will resume Sunday, January 4.

The Feast of the Epiphany: will be celebrated at Christ Church, 530 10th St, Tracy City with a service on Tuesday, January 6, at 5:00pm, followed by a potluck supper. .

The mission of the Parish of St. Mark & St. Paul is to worship God,

to proclaim the Good News of Jesus Christ,
to serve the world for which Christ died,
to educate and nurture our community,
and welcome all.

we thank you for feeding us with the spiritual food of the most precious Body and Blood of your Son our Savior Jesus Christ; and for assuring us in these holy mysteries that we are living members of the Body of your Son, and heirs of your eternal kingdom.
And now, Father, send us out to do the work you have given us to do, to love and serve you as faithful witnesses of Christ our Lord.
To him, to you, and to the Holy Spirit,
be honor and glory, now and for ever. Amen.

Lift Every Voice and Sing (red & black) #27 “Away in a manger”

Gospeller The Holy Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to Luke.

People Glory to you, Lord Christ.

Luke 2:1-20
In those days a decree went out from Emperor Augustus that all the world should be registered. ² This was the first registration and was taken while Quirinius was governor of Syria. ³ All went to their own towns to be registered. ⁴ Joseph also went from the town of Nazareth in Galilee to Judea, to the city of David called Bethlehem, because he was descended from the house and family of David. ⁵ He went to be registered with Mary, to whom he was engaged and who was expecting a child. ⁶ While they were there, the time came for her to deliver her child. ⁷ And she gave birth to her firstborn son and wrapped him in bands of cloth, and laid him in a manger, because there was no place for them in the inn.
⁸ In that region there were shepherds living in the fields, keeping watch over their flock by night. ⁹ Then an angel of the Lord stood before them, and the glory of the Lord shone around them, and they were terrified. ¹⁰
But the angel said to them, “Do not be afraid; for see—I am bringing you good news of great joy for all the people: ¹¹ to you is born this day in the city of David a Savior, who is the Messiah,^[a] the Lord. ¹² This will be a sign for you: you will find a child wrapped in bands of cloth and lying in a manger.” ¹³ And suddenly there was with the angel a multitude of the heavenly host, ^[b]praising God and saying, ¹⁴ “Glory to God in the highest heaven, and on earth peace among those whom he favors!”^[c]
¹⁵ When the angels had left them and gone into heaven, the shepherds said to one another, “Let us go now to Bethlehem and see this thing that has taken place, which the Lord has made known to us.”
¹⁶ So they went with haste and found Mary and Joseph, and the child lying in the manger. ¹⁷ When they saw this, they made known what had been told them about this child; ¹⁸ and all who heard it were amazed at what the shepherds told them. ¹⁹ But Mary treasured all these words and pondered them in her heart. ²⁰ The shepherds returned, glorifying and praising God for all they had heard and seen, as it had been told them.

Gospeller The Gospel of the Lord.
People Praise to you, Lord Christ

Offertory Hymn 89: “It came upon a midnight clear” Carol

The Great Thanksgiving

Celebrant The Lord be with you.

People And also with you.

Celebrant Lift up your hearts.

People We lift them to the Lord.

Celebrant Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.

People It is right to give him thanks and praise.

The Celebrant continues

It is right, and a good and joyful thing, always and everywhere to give thanks to you, Father Almighty, Creator of heaven and earth. . . .

. . . who for ever sing this hymn to proclaim the glory of your Name:

Celebrant and People (music near front of blue hymnal at S130)

Holy, Holy, Holy Lord, God of power and might, (repeat) heaven and earth are full of your glory.

Hosanna in the highest. (repeat)

Blessed is he who comes in the name of the Lord.

Hosanna in the highest. (repeat)

The celebrant continues We give thanks to you, O God. . . .

. . . Therefore, according to his command, O Father,

Celebrant and People

We remember his death,

We proclaim his resurrection,

We await his coming in glory;

The Celebrant continues

And we offer our sacrifice of praise and thanksgiving. . . .

. . . all honor and glory is yours, Almighty Father, now and for ever.

People AMEN.

Celebrant As our Savior Christ has taught us, we now pray.

All

Our Father in heaven,

hallowed be your Name,

your kingdom come,

your will be done,

on earth as in heaven.

Give us today our daily bread.

Forgive us our sins

as we forgive those who sin against us.

Save us from the time of trial,

and deliver us from evil.

For the kingdom, the power,

and the glory are yours,

now and for ever. Amen.

The Celebrant breaks the consecrated Bread. A period of silence is kept.

Celebrant and People (music near front of blue hymnal at S164)

Jesus, Lamb of God: have mercy on us.

Jesus, bearer of our sins: have mercy on us.

Jesus, redeemer, redeemer of the world:

Give us your peace. (repeat)

When Bread and Wine are ready for distribution, the Celebrant says

The gifts of God for the people of God.

All baptized Christians are welcome to receive Communion; those not baptized are invited forward to participate by receiving a blessing. Gluten-free wafers are available; simply ask the priest.
