

corporating information about present-day orders and their ministries with a closer focus on St. Mary. She will also look into questions that Episcopalians have about life in a religious community.

Sr. Mary holds an M.Div. from Sewanee School of Theology as well as a certificate in Spiritual Direction from The General Seminary. She has served as a spiritual director for over thirty years, is a member of Spiritual Directors International, and has worked with seminarians at Virginia Seminary, the General Seminary, Union Seminary, Yale, and Sewanee. Since she transferred to the Community of St. Mary, she has served as Prioress and has used her writing, preaching, reflections, photography and video skills to help people explore the connections between faith, care for creation, and Benedictine spirituality.
