Psalms 36:5-10 (Spoken at 8:30, sung at 11am)		Poe

5 Your love, O Lord, reaches | to the heavens, *
and your faithfulness | to the clouds.
6 Your righteousness is like the strong mountains,
your justice like | the great deep; *
you save both man and | beast, O Lord.
7 How priceless is your | love, O God! *
your people take refuge under the shadow | of your wings.
8 They feast upon the abundance | of your house; *
you give them drink from the river of | your delights.
9 For with you is the | well of life, *
and in your light | we see light.
10 Continue your loving-kindness to | those who know you, *
and your favor to those who are | true of heart.

Second Reading: 1 Corinthians 12:1-11 (insert)

The Lord’s Prayer (Contemporary)

Our Father in heaven, hallowed be your Name, your kingdom come, your will be done, on earth as in heaven. Give us today our daily bread. Forgive us our sins	as we forgive those who sin against us. Save us from the time of trial, and deliver us from evil. For the kingdom, the power, and the glory are yours, now and for ever. Amen.

At the Breaking of the Bread: Hymnal, S-155

At Communion:
All baptized Christians are welcome to receive Communion. Anyone may come forward to receive a blessing, indicated by crossing your arms across your chest. Gluten-free wafers are available; simply ask the priest. For the sake of public health, please drink from the chalice or decline it by crossing your arms across your chest.

Sending Forth of Eucharistic Visitors (when needed)
(in unison) In the name of this parish, we send you forth bearing these holy gifts, that those to whom you go may share with us in the communion of Christ’s body and blood. We who are many are one body, because we all share one bread, one cup.
