

The mission of the Parish of St. Mark & St. Paul is to worship God,
to proclaim the Good News of Jesus Christ,
to serve the world for which Christ died,
to educate and nurture our community,
and welcome all.

Sanctus: S128

The Lord’s Prayer (Contemporary)

Our Father in heaven,
hallowed be your Name,
your kingdom come,
your will be done,
on earth as in heaven.
Give us today our daily bread.
Forgive us our sins

as we forgive those who sin against us.
Save us from the time of trial,
and deliver us from evil.
For the kingdom, the power,
and the glory are yours,
now and for ever. Amen.

Fraction Anthem: S155

Communion of the People:
All baptized Christians are welcome to receive Communion. Anyone may come forward to receive a blessing, indicated by crossing your arms across your chest. Gluten-free wafers are available; simply ask the priest.

Sending Forth of Eucharistic Visitors (when needed)
(in unison) In the name of this parish, we send you forth bearing these holy gifts, that those to whom you go may share with us in the communion of Christ’s body and blood. We who are many are one body, because we all share one bread, one cup.

Sunday the Holy Eucharist is celebrated at 8:30 and 11am. The 11am service will be livestreamed on our Facebook page and remains available there.

Nursery Services: Infants and toddlers through three years old are invited to gather on the playground or downstairs in Claiborne Hall. Cara Kitzrow supervises the nursery.

Morning and Evening prayer services: are held at 8:30 and 4:45pm, Monday through Thursday in the sanctuary.

Sunday September 6 is CAC Pantry Sunday. To continue serving our neighbors, CAC is in need of bread, cereal, canned tuna, baby diapers (size 6), feminine hygiene products, and toilet paper. for this month's Pantry Sunday collection. The Community Action Committee is more than a food pantry as it strives to meet the basic human needs of those living in crisis in and around Sewanee. Neighbors can visit Monday through Friday, 9:00 AM to 11:00 AM to receive weekly groceries and inquire about assistance with utility expenses. To learn more about CAC services, call (931) 598-5927.

Sunday Forum: John Gatta will talk about his latest book, Green Worlds of C. S. Lewis, The Ecology of Aslan's Realm, at this week's Sunday Forum at St. Mark and St. Paul. A noted author of several books exploring Christian approaches to environmentalism, Gatta was for years a member of Sewanee's English Department and a former dean at the college. Other books include Green Gospel: Foundations of Ecotheology, American Madonna: Images of the Divine Woman in Literary Culture, and Spirits of Place in American Literary Culture.

The presentation will take place August 30 from 9:45-10:45 in Kennerly Hall.

Next week: Robin Bates, "Better Living through Literature: The Power of Books to Change Lives."

Earthquake and Flood Relief— Disaster relief efforts are coordinated by Episcopal Relief & Development (episcopalrelief.org). ERD is a trustworthy charity that provides aid for disasters worldwide.

September Book Study – Green Worlds of C. S. Lewis

by John Gatta, illustrated by Mary Gatta

Tuesdays 5:30-6:30

Brooks Hall Sept 8-29

Please bring a drink or snack to share.

From Robert MacSwain's blurb on the back cover: "C. S. Lewis is well known for taking his readers on fantastic journeys to other planets like Mars and Venus, other universes like Narnia and Charn, and even to Heaven and Hell. John Gatta shows us that an important motivation behind Lewis's otherworldly imagination was a deep concern for protecting the health of the plants, animals, and landscapes of Earth. Readers of Lewis are thus encouraged to embrace his own incarnational eco-theological vision and inhabit this planet accordingly."

Bishop Deon Johnson's essays as the Spiritual Sojourner for EfM Path 26–27: Following Jesus views discipleship as a life shaped by love, community, and a commitment to justice. His compelling texts emphasize that following Jesus begins with curiosity, grows through vocation and is sustained through community, worship, and shared practices. It moves beyond personal faith into active participation in God's work of liberation, calling believers to embody love, confront injustice, and become sources of hope, healing, and transformation in the world. The Sewanee chapter of the Society of the Companions of the Holy Cross meets the 2nd Saturday of the month during the school year. Open to all Christian women, Companions are united under a common rule of prayer, thanksgiving, and simplicity of life. Social justice, peace, the unity of all people, and environmental responsibility are special concerns. This year, the chapter will be reading and discussing Following the Call, Living the Sermon on the Mount Together. Chapter members are largely based in the Sewanee and Chattanooga areas, and meetings are split between the two. The first meeting of the year, on September 12, will be held on Lookout Mountain. For more information see Mary Blount, Beth Chamberlain, Phebe Hethcock, Susan Holmes, or Mary Priestley (mpriestley0150@gmail.com).
