The Nicene Creed

We believe in one God,
the Father, the Almighty,
maker of heaven and earth,
of all that is, seen and unseen.
We believe in one Lord, Jesus Christ,
the only Son of God,
eternally begotten of the Father,
God from God, Light from Light,
true God from true God,
begotten, not made,
of one Being with the Father.
Through him all things were made.
For us and for our salvation
he came down from heaven:
by the power of the Holy Spirit
he became incarnate from the Virgin Mary,
and was made man.
For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate;
he suffered death and was buried.
On the third day he rose again
in accordance with the Scriptures;
he ascended into heaven
and is seated at the right hand of the Father.
He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead,
and his kingdom will have no end.
We believe in the Holy Spirit,
the Lord, the giver of life,
who proceeds from the Father and the Son.
With the Father and the Son he is worshiped and glorified.
He has spoken through the Prophets.
We believe in one holy catholic and apostolic Church.
We acknowledge one baptism for the forgiveness of sins.
We look for the resurrection of the dead,
and the life of the world to come. Amen.

Sunday, September 12: Speaker Peter Gray. The author of Mark's gospel likely composed the story to be heard in one sitting. As a result, it is a masterfully-told and urgently powerful story of God's good news in Jesus Christ. If hearing the story in one sitting was good enough for Mark's original audience, why not us? As the Parish of St. Mark and St. Paul considers the witness and legacy of these two patron saints, the Rev. Peter Gray, University Chaplain at the University of the South, will offer "a sprint through Mark." In one hour, he'll tell the whole story as Mark would have us hear it, highlighting the major themes and how Mark holds them all together. Don't let the Mississippi accent fool you; Peter can talk really fast when he needs to! The gospel reading assigned for this Sunday's worship has Jesus asking his disciples, "Who do you say that I am?" In the presentation, Peter will give an overview of how Mark answers that question through the gospel narrative. Hopefully, this overview will prepare you to go into further depth in ensuing weeks.

Youth Sunday School: 9:45-10:45am on the upstairs porch of Brooks Hall.
